

Geoffrey Kabaservice

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 21, 2016

Ostrom Workshop, 513 N. Park

LIVESTREAM:

https://iu.mediaspace.kaltura.com/media/WPTP/1_jmdggdc1

LECTURE SERIES, 12:00 – 1:30 PM

“Trump and the Republican Party Crackup—A Moderate Historical Perspective”

One of the leading historians of the Republican Party discusses its forgotten moderate past and the conservative movement's rise to power. The author will argue that Donald Trump's takeover of the GOP was made possible by its transformation into an ideological party unlike any other in American history.

Geoffrey Kabaservice is the award-winning author of Rule and Ruin: The Downfall of Moderation and the Destruction of the Republican Party. He was a history professor at Yale University, is a frequent commentator on radio and television, and works in politics in Washington, DC (website).

ROUNDTABLE, 4:00 – 5:30 PM

“Is There a Role for Moderation in America's Polarized Politics?”

PANELISTS: LEE H. HAMILTON, Former Congressman, School of Global and International Studies, School of Public and Environmental Affairs

GEOFFREY KABASERVICE, author of Rule and Ruin: The Downfall of Moderation and the Destruction of the Republican Party, from Eisenhower to the Tea Party

LESLIE LENKOWSKY, School of Public and Environmental Affairs

MODERATOR: EDWARD CARMINES, Department of Political Science

Cosponsors: Tocqueville Program (with the generous help of the Apgar Foundation and the Ostrom Grant from COAS), Center on American Politics, Department of Political Science, Ostrom Workshop

Presentations are open to the public, and you are welcome to bring your lunch. For questions, contact Allison Sturgeon (sturgeon@iu.edu; 812/855-3151).