

OSTROM WORKSHOP RESEARCH SERIES

Cate Racek

*Associate Research Development Specialist,
Proposal Development Services
Office of the Vice Provost for Research*

“Grants 101: An Intro to External Funding”

Wednesday, February 19, 2020

12:00–1:00 PM • Ostrom Workshop, 513 N. Park

Grantsmanship is the skill or practice of obtaining grants, especially in research. Grantsmanship begins with an overall understanding of the proposal preparation and submission process. This 30-minute presentation will highlight resources available on the Bloomington campus, types of external funding, funding opportunities, proposal preparation, and submission. Hosted by the Ostrom Workshop, this research series event is open to faculty researchers, post docs, and graduate students.

~ TM

Cate Racek has provided proposal development support at Indiana University since 2010. With extensive experience submitting contracts and grants to federal, state, and foundational agencies, Cate works with faculty to identify funding, plan for submission, and to develop and strengthen narratives, budgets, and overall proposal impact. She holds degrees in English and education from College of the Holy Cross and University of Vermont and is a member of the National Organization of Research Development Professionals.

Presentations are open to the public (see our website for papers). You are welcome to bring your lunch. For questions, contact Allison Sturgeon (sturgeon@iu.edu; 812/855–3151).