Why should a grad student interested in governance care about the Workshop? How do you effectively teach the IAD Framework to an undergrad? What is it like for a student when they're first exposed to the Bloomington School? We are embarking on a new project to revamp and significantly expand the Workshop's teaching resources with the help of our wonderful Ostrom fellows, and our affiliates who have been in some cases, teaching this content for decades to a wide range of audiences. This special roundtable discussion will discuss insights gleaned from these diverse experiences, along with the new resources that we are gathering, and developing, to help inform and inspire the next generation of Workshopppers.

Ostrom Affiliate Panelists: Edella Schlager, Bill Blomquist, Mike McGinnis, Dan Cole, Harini Nagendra, Brett Frischmann, Eduardo Brondizio
