Ostrom Workshop Mini-Conference – December 16, 2019
in the Tocqueville Room at the Ostrom Workshop, 513 N. Park Ave.
9:00am – 3:15pm
Coffee available starting at 8:45am

AGENDA

9:00am  “Institutional Approach to Environmental Emission Standards”
        --paper by Zheng Zhou
        --presented by Nikos Zirogiannis

9:30am  “Analyzing Mandatory Environmental Information Disclosure Policy in an Institutional Analysis and Development Framework”
        --paper by Ian Li
        --presented by Angie Raymond

10:00am “Cultural Heritage Management in Oaxaca: Public Archaeology, Commons, Cultural Governance and Ethical Issues”
        --paper by Jorge Rios Allier
        --presented by Stacie M. King

10:30am “Interim Measure of International Arbitration Proceeding: Institutional Analysis in the US Judicial Framework”
        --paper by Yudi Betaubun
        --presented by Lisa Blomgren Amsler

11:00am “Understanding Land Driven Development in China: Institutions and Socioeconomic Consequences”
        --paper by Lu Zhou
        --presented by Michael McGinnis

11:30am Lunch (provided) – opportunity for conversations about morning papers

12:15pm “Ecological and Evolutionary Outcomes of a Changing Chemical Landscape:
        Effects of Pollution on Wild Primates in Protected Areas”
        --paper by Tessa Steiniche
        --presented by Vicky Meretsky

12:45pm “Closing Space or Changing Space? The Legal Institutions Governing the State-Civil Society Relationship”
        --paper by Anthony DeMattee
        --presented by Daniel H. Cole

1:15pm “Institutional Barriers and Transformations in Nature-Based Climate Adaptation in Guangzhou, China”
        --paper by Jieling Liu
        --presented by Giri Ramasubramian
1:45pm  “The Mechanisms of Local Governance in Emerging Democracies: A Case Study of Tunisia”
        --paper by Salih Yasun
        --presented by Ruta Spiewak

2:15pm  “Crafting Educational Network Governance of The Early Childhood Development in Thai Local Government: An Institutional Perspective”
        --paper by Phrueksaphong Visuthduangdusdee
        -- presented by Min Ren

2:45pm  Refreshments and opportunity for conversations about afternoon papers

3:15pm  Adjourn