

IU OSTROM WORKSHOP, NYU CENTER FOR GLOBAL AFFAIRS, IRSEM & PARIS VIII

PRESENT

A JOINT RESEARCH & POLICY WORKSHOP

Cybersecurity, Human Rights, and the Prospects for Cyber Peace

November 22, 2019

NYU School of Professional Studies, Center for Global Affairs

Woolworth Building, 15 Barclay Street, New York, NY

Following on the Spring 2017 Ostrom Cybersecurity Colloquium, we are pleased to announce a special follow-up Workshop focused on the prospects of cyber peace. The Cyber Peace Workshop (CPW) seeks participation from scholars, policymakers, practitioners, and civil society groups interested in exploring the meaning and promise of cyber peace, ranging from the promotion of cybersecurity due diligence to protecting human rights online to making democracy harder to hack. In an environment increasingly beset by cyber insecurity, we seek to begin laying out an agenda for how to achieve a positive cyber peace for the twenty-first century

About the Organizers

IU Ostrom Workshop

The Program on Governance of Internet and Cybersecurity brings together scholars from across Indiana University and beyond. Building scholarly networks, we seek out partnerships with managers and policymakers in the U.S. and abroad in order to translate research findings into effective policy.

NYU

New York University's new MS in Global Security, Conflict, and Cybercrime, offered by the Center for Global Affairs, prepares a global student body to provide leadership, management, direction, advocacy and analysis in support of strengthening the cyber posture of an organization to assure its mission in a contested operational environment.

GEODE, Université Paris 8

Geopolitics of the Datasphere (GEODE) is a multidisciplinary research and education project at the University Paris 8 dedicated to the strategic challenges of the digital revolution.

IRSEM

The Institute for Strategic Research (IRSEM – Institut de Recherche stratégique de l'École militaire – www.irsem.fr) is a French Ministry of Defence research institute, a unique entity situated at the crossroads between the defence and the academic environments.
