Reconceptualizing Cyber Power: the Belfer Center's National Cyber Power Index

Talk presented by

Simon Jones and
Anina Schwarzenbach

What is cyber power? How is it measured? Which are the most powerful countries in cyber terms? How do we assess cyber capabilities and intent?

Join us as we present the Belfer Center's National Cyber Power Index and answer these questions. We will explain how to move the debate around cyber power beyond offense and defense and outline the objectives that countries are trying to achieve through cyber means.
