

CYBERSECURITY AND INFORMATION GOVERNANCE Reading Group

J. J. Thompson

---

“Cookies and Hard Problems:
Cybersecurity, Corporate
Governance, and the Realities of Being a CISO”

THURSDAY, JANUARY 31, 2019

1:15–2:15 PM | MAURER SCHOOL OF LAW, ROOM 216

J. J. Thompson is the Founder and CEO of Rook Security, an IT Security firm providing security strategy, crisis management, and next generation security operations services. Founded in 2008, Indianapolis-based Rook Security is one of the fastest-growing security companies in the nation and recently earned a spot on the Inc. 500. Prior to Rook, J. J. served Global 100 accounts through strategic incident and crisis response while at Ernst & Young. J. J. has been published in major industry journals and covered in Bloomberg, USA Today, Forbes, CIO, CSO, and other major media outlets. J. J. is a Certified Information Systems Security Professional (CISSP) and served as the President of ISC2 Indianapolis and the Silicon Valley chapter of the ISSA. He also serves on a number of higher education boards and was a finalist for the Ernst & Young Entrepreneur Of The Year Ohio Valley Awards. J. J. has a Bachelor of Business Administration in Management Information Systems from the University of Iowa – Henry B. Tippie College of Business.

Coffee and cookies will be served. For questions, contact Scott Shackelford (sjshacke@indiana.edu).