

Roy Gardner Memorial Lecture

Professor Ehud Kalai

Northwestern University

Perspectives on Game Sciences

- Research methodologies from different fields
- Applications to different subjects
- The separation between the theory and applications with examples from auctions and market design
- Theoretical versus real world applications
- Rationality versus bounded rationality
- Micro versus macro game theory

Thursday, September 1, 2016

7:00 p.m.

Ballantine Hall 109
Reception to follow.

