

Political, Economic, and Legal Institutions and Organizations WORKING GROUP

Ungoverned Spaces

TUESDAY, APRIL 17, 2018

12:00–1:30 PM • OSTROM WORKSHOP, 513 N. PARK

The Ostrom Workshop program on Political, Economic, and Legal Institutions and Organizations (PELIO) is pleased to announce the second meeting of our new working group on “Ungoverned Spaces.” This working group will focus on research around the challenges and solutions to issues of governance across a range of actors and actions in those areas of the world that are unregulated or underregulated. Our goal is to bring together a range of scholars across campus working from a range of disciplinary traditions to advance the global study of some of the world’s most pressing social, legal, and political challenges. At this meeting, we will work to define concepts and continue the conversations raised in our inaugural meeting: How do we define governance? What kinds of spaces are more likely to be ungoverned? How do we conceptualize areas of overlapping or contested governance?

Faculty and students interested in these issues are welcome to join us for this informal gathering.

Cyanne E. Loyle is a member of the Political Science Department and interim director of the Ostrom Workshop’s PELIO program.

*Lunch will be provided: please RSVP to David Price (daaprice@indiana.edu) by April 16. Live stream will be available (see our website for URL).
