OSTROM WORKSHOP

Indiana University | June 19–22, 2019

Call for Panels

GOVERNANCE: PAST, PRESENT, AND FUTURE

SPONSORED BY THE OSTROM WORKSHOP

From governing metropolitan areas to governing the commons and beyond, scholars and students at or influenced by the Ostrom Workshop have been interested in governance. This interest in governance has been pursued and advanced from many disciplinary perspectives, and it has been applied to a multitude of topics, problems, and situations—including domains such as cyberspace and challenges such as climate change, of which only a few were even dimly aware when the Ostrom Workshop was founded.

As we gather in Bloomington in June 2019 for the 6th Workshop on the Ostrom Workshop (WOW6), please join us in the discussion of this theme—Governance: Past, Present, and Future. It will be an opportunity for all of us to see and enjoy the vast range of topics and approaches relating to that theme, and how the study of governance has evolved and continues to evolve across our worldwide community of colleagues.

We are therefore now inviting panels that will explore, advance, and reflect upon the study of governance. We aim to assemble a WOW6 conference program that will incorporate diverse theoretical, methodological, and empirical inquiries.

PANEL SUBMISSIONS: You are invited to propose one or more 90-minute panels of 3 to 5 presentations (please, no fewer than three and no more than five per panel). Your panel proposal should include an abstract of up to 300 words describing the panel's focus and rationale, plus 250-word abstracts of each individual presentation. The online submission form will also require the panel's title and list of the panelists' names.

Panel submission deadline: SEPTEMBER 1, 2018

Prospective participants should submit their proposals through our online submission form:

Applicants will be notified of the status of their proposals in early October.
